

Alabama Political Science Association
(AlaPSA)
2010 – 2011 membership form

The Alabama Political Science Association invites you to join our organization.

AlaPSA is an academic-based, professional organization that connects scholars interested in political science throughout Alabama and the southern region. As a professional in a field concerned with Alabama politics and government, AlaPSA allows you to stay connected to fellow scholars and practitioners in the political science discipline. Membership also entitles you to a subscription to Politics and Policy.

AlaPSA's membership year runs from October 1st until September 30th. If you join as a new member or renew your membership as a returning member, you will be entitled to membership and journal subscription through September 30, 2011.

Our 2011 annual conference will be held at Samford University in Birmingham. We hope you will join AlaPSA and participate in our conference.
